

Uses for Google in the Classroom

Chrome = The best web browser for Google

Drive = Home to all your digital files

Google Classroom = Digital portal for all assignments

Google Forms

- Assessments
- Collect Parent/ Student Information
- Sign Up Sheets
- Anecdotal Notes
- Reading Log

Google Sheets

- Sight word assessments
- Organize Leveled Groups
- Organize Schedules
- Organize Data from Google Forms

Google Slides

- Interactive assignments
- Student presentations

Google Docs

- Live document for collaboration

Google

Apps & Extensions

Flubaroo: Grading tool for Google Sheets

Quizlet: Make simple study tools.... for FREE

Epic!: A large digital library of FREE books

Readability: Strips away the fluff on web pages allowing students to focus on the article

Goo.gl URL shortner: shorten URLs with QR codes

One Tab: Compress multiple tabs into one place

Hangouts: Bring conversations to life with pics, emoji and group video calls

Frontrow: FREE adaptive math and ELA practice

(frontrowed.com)

Storyline Online: Interactive site where celebrities read books (storylineonline.com)

Announcify: Reads web page to student

Save as PDF: Save a website as a PDF

Paid Resources

IXL: engaging and adaptive K-12 math and ELA practice (ixl.com)

Kids A-Z=Online leveled books & assessments

INFOhio (Bookfix) = Pairs fiction and nonfiction books

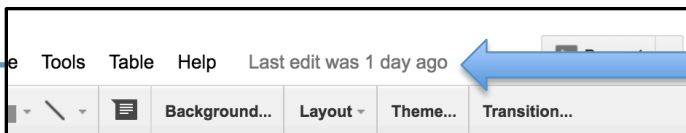

Helpful Tips and Tricks

Screenshot on a MAC: command + shift + 4

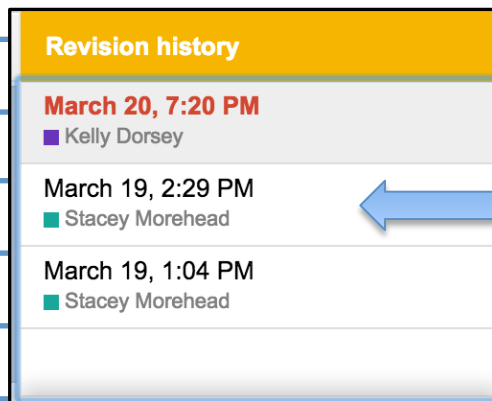

Screenshot on a Chromebook: cntrl +

Revision History on Google Slides:

Click here, then the revision history will pop up.

Click on each one to view who contributed to the document or recover deleted slides.

Forced to Copy:

Delete all text up to the LAST “/” and then type “copy.”

Most of the time it says “edit” right before the “/.”

To get a copy of this presentation, scan this code → or type in → <https://goo.gl/WMRVnc>

